Transportation

I will provide transportation for my child to/from camp

Herring Gut Learning Center does not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, disability, nationality, political affiliation, age, or religious beliefs in the administration of its education programs.

Program

- My child will take the shuttle from Thomaston

Please select a program. Once we have received your deposit, a letter will be sent confirming your child's spot at camp this summer along with more program details and a packing list. To qualify as a resident the camper must be a full-time resident of Knox County. Scholarships for Knox County students are available on first come first serve basis and the application can be found on our website.
