

HERRING GUT LEARNING CENTER

2019 Professional Development Summer Sessions

Port Clyde, Maine

LODGING FORM

Registration Deadline: May 31, 2019

(Please contact us to confirm openings before submitting a request after the deadline.)

LODGING DESCRIPTION

Our campus in Port Clyde includes the Thomson House, a traditional Maine farmhouse that looks out onto Port Clyde harbor. The house has three bedrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, one sitting room, and one bathroom (w/shower) on the first floor. The furnishings are simple and rustic. Each bedroom has two twin beds. LODGING ELIGIBILITY

Any person registered for professional development is welcome to apply for on-campus lodging. Space is limited to a maximum of six participants during each session. Preference will be given to those who register on or before the application deadline. We will let you know within 5 business days of your application whether or not we can offer you lodging. Our accommodations are available the night prior and the nights during each session. Please contact us for a list of other lodging options in the area.

OTHER INFORMATION

Bed linens, blankets and towels are provided for each lodger. Please be aware that neither smoking nor pets are permitted in the Thomson House. It does have a few board games for your entertainment and WiFi access, but no T.V. or radio. Evening meals can be enjoyed at one of the area's many restaurants or made on site. (Port Clyde Village has a small grocery).

Yes, I would like to apply for on-campus lodging at the Thomson House during my session.
